雑誌名 | 筑波法政
号 | 4
発行年 | 2014年
vol | 2014年12月号
Contents

Articles
Negligent Banking Supervision and Governmental Liability—Canada/Australia
........................................................................................................... YANAGA, Masao 1

The Liability of Academics for the Failure of Cooperated Projects with Business and Public Entities (1)
.................................................................................................................. HOSHINO, Yutaka 41

Formation of Organizations Triggered by a ‘Event’:
Examining the Case of Japan Association of New Economy and the Matter of Electric Power
................................................................................................................. MAKITA, Jun 53

Judicial lobbying:
Evidence from National Survey on Peak Organizations in Japan
................................................................................................................. OKURA, Sae 81

Constitutional Analysis on McCutcheon v. FEC
....................................................................................................................... TSUJI, Yuichiro 113

Notes
The So-Called ‘English School’ in International Relations, Its Concept of ‘International Society’ and the Legacy of Colonial Rule
........................................................................................................... Harald KLEINSCHMIDT 141

The treaty-making power under the Meiji Constitution in Japan
................................................................................................................. MATSUZAWA, Kotaro 163

Published by the Tsukuba Society of Law and Politics
The University of Tsukuba, Japan