Manuscript Preparation

1) General: The length of the manuscript should not exceed 30 double-spaced A4 pages, inclusive of figures and tables (10 printed pages). It should be printed on one side of A4 (210 mm × 295 mm) paper, using double spacing and at least 25 mm margins on all sides. A Times New Roman font size of 12 pt is required. The corresponding author should be identified (include telephone, fax number and E-mail address). Full postal addresses must be given for all co-authors. The Editors reserve the right to adjust style to certain standards of uniformity. Authors should retain a copy of their manuscript since we cannot accept responsibility for damage or loss of papers.

2) Text: Follow this order when organizing manuscripts: Title, Authors, Affiliations, Running title, Summary, Keywords, Introduction, Main text, Conclusions, Acknowledgements, References, Figure Captions, Tables and then Figures and Illustrations. Do not import the Figures or Tables into your text. Place tables at the end of the manuscript file and figures in a separate powerpoint file. The corresponding author should be identified with an asterisk and a complete address and e-mail address provided. Please do not use footnotes in the title page or in the manuscript. Only standard abbreviations should be used. Subject specific abbreviations and jargon will not be accepted.

3) Summary: This should be a brief summary of the contents and conclusions of the paper, and should be approximately 300 words and not contain references.

4) Keywords: No more than five key word entries should be provided for rapid scanning of the contents of the paper and for compiling the index.

5) Introduction: The introduction should contain a brief survey of the relevant literature and the reasons for doing the work.

6) Main Text: The main text should be organized logically following the standard rules of English writing. Subtitles may be used to identify the content of each section.

7) Conclusion: Briefly summarize the contents of the main text and discuss the importance of the findings presented in the main text. This may also include recommendations and applications.

8) References: All publications cited in the text should be presented in an alphabetical list of references following the text of the manuscript. In the text refer to the author's name (without initials) and year of publication (e.g. "Since Peterson (1993) has shown that..." or "This is in agreement with results obtained later (Kramer, 1994)". For three or more authors use the first author followed by "et al.", in the text. The list of references should be arranged alphabetically by authors' names and follow the formats given below. The manuscript should be carefully checked to ensure that the spelling of authors' names and dates are exactly the same in the text as in the reference list. Publications in any other language than English should retain the original title and include an English translation in parentheses. However, publication in non-Latin alphabets should be transliterated, an English translation provided in parentheses and a notation such as (in Japanese) or (in Japanese with English abstract) should be added.

References to papers "in press" must mean that the article has been accepted for publication.

References to "personal communications" and unpublished work are permitted in the text only; references to papers in preparation or submitted are not permissible.

Illustrations, Line Drawings and Photographs: All illustrations should be provided as high quality figures suitable for reproduction (which may include reduction). Photographs, charts and diagrams are all to be referred to as "Figure(s)" and should be numbered consecutively in the order to which they are referred. They should accompany the manuscript, but should not be included within the text. Figures should be saved as powerpoint, TIFF, EPS or other similar formats. Do not use word files for figures. The file(s) for figures should be separate and named as to make clear which figure it is e.g. figs.ppt, fig1.tiff, fig2.eps, etc. Type the figure number and manuscript authors and title on the bottom of the figure. All figures must have a caption that is supplied on a separate sheet of figure legends (included with the main text) after the references. The figure legend should state concisely what the figure shows. Color figures should only be used when absolutely necessary.

Tables: Tables should be numbered consecutively and given a suitable caption and included at the end of the text after the figure legends. Footnotes to tables should be typed below the table and should be referred to by superscript lowercase letters. No vertical rules should be used. Tables should not duplicate results presented elsewhere in the manuscript, (e.g. in graphs). Units of measure should always be clearly indicated.

Permissions: Authors are responsible for obtaining permission from the copyright holder to reproduce any figures for which copyright exists. The source of the material should be credited at the end of the figure legend or in a footnote of the table.

Offprints: One copy of the journal will be sent to the contributing authors free of charge. PDF of the paper can be obtained free of charge online through J-Stage.
